

Our Strengths

Trust is the foundation of any successful partnership in the German Mid Cap market. In addition to their proven expertise, the consultants' personality is of key importance to us. Empathy and a profound understanding of the clients' situation are required in order to serve the customer and achieve the common objectives regarding M&A in Germany. This is something we offer.

Our Team

In addition to the necessary professional qualifications of an M&A-expert in Germany, all associates of Westfalenfinanz have precisely these characteristics, allowing them to jointly realize the objectives of the client. The key focus of our activities is the client and his requirements regarding the M&A transaction.
