

Steffen Bolz

Steffen Bolz is the founding partner of Westfalenfinanz. Many years of industry experience on the one hand combined with his consultancy background in transaction services on the other, allow Mr Bolz not only a processual but also a strategic view of the entire transaction. With a profound understanding of the needs of both parties in hand, he is able to guide both parties through the process to a successful completion.

Before founding Westfalenfinanz, Steffen Bolz held active Financial, M&A and Strategic Management managerial positions in various manufacturing companies. In addition, he was the Transaction Services Project Manager at one of the Big4 Corporate Audit Firms. During his tenure there, he led numerous transactions, including acquisitions, divestments and carve-out projects in various industries.

After studying at the International School of Management majoring in Controlling and Finance, Steffen Bolz deepened his expertise with an MBA from the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa.
